Australia Awards Philippines

Featured Australia Awards alumni in the cover are Jeffrey Tarayao and Lirio Josefina "Iona" Mapa. Jeffrey received his Master of Sustainable Development from Macquarie University, and Iona received her Master of Education from Monash University.

“The university has a program which gives every PWD student the assistance in planning their study like concerns about accessibility and other needs. I am really grateful to Australia Awards Scholarships for this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.”

Naprey Almario
Master of Information Systems and Technology
Curtin University

Choose to make a difference. Choose Australia Awards.

Australia Awards Scholarships are prestigious international awards offered by the Australian Government to the next generation of global leaders. The program gives future Filipino leaders a fully-funded postgraduate education at any of Australia's world class universities. This will equip future Filipino leaders with the knowledge and skills to contribute to change and development in the Philippines.

Applications are strongly encouraged from all eligible citizens of the Philippines. The application process is open and competitive, providing equal opportunity to all eligible people regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, or disability.

The scholarship covers travel and cost of living allowance, tuition and other fees such as health coverage and supplementary tutorial assistance, among others.

Visit www.australiaawardsphilippines.org/scholarships for full details on scholarship entitlements, application process and eligibility requirements.
